

78th Lanarkshire Scout Group presents

An illustrated talk with

Author Peter Wright

Discussing his book

'Ribbon of Wildness– Discovering the Watershed of Scotland'

A book which provides a rich mix of narrative which will have widespread appeal; from the armchair reader to the outdoor enthusiast, the social or environmental historian to the avid mountaineer, and a great many others. It equally, serves to define the geographic Watershed of Scotland for the first time, and describes its absolutely central place in our landscape

28th March 2012 at 7pm

David Livingston Church Hall

Tickets £3

Refreshments available afterwards

For more information contact Gavin Carruthers on 01698 827731 or pop into the Scout hall